The Cover

On the cover of this UCLA Football Press Book is a picture of the Grantland Rice Memorial Trophy, symbolic of the national collegiate football championship, which was voted to Red Sanders' undefeated and untied 1954 Bruin team by the Football Writers Association of America. This strikingly beautiful gold trophy, designed by the Raymond Loewy, will be donated each year by Look Magazine in memory of the late "Granny" Rice, the dean of American sportswriters. It was presented for the first time last year.

Two of Look's top editors—Editorial Director Dan Mich and Sports Editor Tim Cohane—made the formal presentation of this trophy at an impressive ceremony on the UCLA campus last February. In accepting the trophy, UCLA Chancellor Raymond B. Allen said the simplicity of the trophy design is symbolic of what we try to do at UCLA. "We try to put the emphasis on fundamentals and the ability to do a job when it needs to be done."

Chancellor Allen turned the trophy over to "one of my favorite professors, Red Sanders." In accepting the award on behalf of the varsity and the coaches, Coach Sanders said, "I accept this trophy with the greatest humility. I liken this football team to Grantland Rice in character. It was dependable, outstanding, a thoroughbred, modest—and the best."

Final 1954 Polls

In addition to their top rating by the Football Writers Association of America, the 1954 Bruins were also voted national champions by the United Press Board of Coaches, which includes 35 top football coaches from every section of the country. UCLA was edged out by Ohio State for the No. 1 spot in the final 1954 Associated Press and International News Service polls.

The 1955 Bruins

RETURNING VETERANS—A total of 23 returning lettermen: 5 ends, 4 tackles, 5 guards, 1 center, 2 quarterbacks, 3 left halfbacks, 1 right half and 2 fullbacks. The only two starters from the 1954 national championship team are All-American Fullback Bob Davenport and Right Half Jim Decker, two of the outstanding prospects in the nation.

LOSSES—12 veterans, including the entire first string line, quarterback and tailback: 3 ends, 3 tackles, 2 guards, 1 center, 2 quarterbacks and 1 tailback. Key losses are unanimous All-American left tackle Jack Ellena, All-American right guard Jim Salsbury, two outstanding ends in Bob Long and Bob Heydenfeldt and a great all-round tailback in Primo Villanueva. Also included is blocking back Terry Debay, voted UCLA's "most valuable player" last year.

PROMISING SOPHOMORES—Best prospect up from the undermanned 1954 Brubabe squad is Jim Matheny, 190, a fine center and linebacker. Esker Harris, 175, a light but quick guard also showed well in spring drills. Others who might make the varsity are fullback Barry Billington, 160, and wingback Don Duncan, 170, but both may be a year away.

NEWCOMERS AND TRANSFERS—After a spring practice marred by an unusual amount of injuries, few newcomers now appear able to help UCLA defend its 1954 national championship. Most promising are Wingback Chuck Hollaway, a 165-pound low hurdler and broad jumper who starred as a gridder for Ft. Ord last season; Tailback Ed Griffin, 175, who flashed promise on the redshirt squad in 1954; and Ronnie Knox, 193-pound transfer from California. Although Knox had virtually no spring drill, due to a broken finger on his passing hand, he is known to be a fine thrower, punter and defensive safetyman.

OFFENSE—The balanced-line single wing attack, of which there are only three others like in the country. The attack is a well-balanced power offense employing many optional run-pass plays. In 1954 the Bruins scored 55 touchdowns, 38 by runs from scrimmage, 10 by passing, 4 by blocked punts and 3 on punt returns. UCLA was not only the highest scoring team in the nation with 367 points, but also the strongest defensive unit, holding its foes to 40 points. Sanders' big job is to rebuild his entire starting line and replace two key backs. In Davenport and Decker UCLA has two of the best backs in America. At the conclusion of spring practice, it was all Doug Bradley at tailback even though he had been injured most of the time; while Bob Bergdahl and Bruce Ballard figured to battle for the key blocking back spot left vacant by Debay.

PASSING—Bradley completed 20 out of 31 for 229 yards and two touchdowns last year. A quick look at him before injury sidelined him in spring practice showed that he might be a vastly improved performer in 1955. Whether he can reach the performance of the graduated Primo Villanueva, however, is another matter. Off his prep reputation, Ronnie Knox could supply another aerial weapon.

PUNTING—In a field UCLA has dominated for six years, the Bruins appear to be headed downward in the punting department. Bradley, Sam Brown and Gerry McDougall averaged only 31 yards per kick in seven tries in 1954 as against 39.7 for graduated Bob Heydenfeldt for a three-year period, 41.8 for Paul Cameron, 40.7 for Bob Moore and 38.3 for Hal Braly.

THE OUTLOOK—Red Sanders says, "On a factual basis, you think of a team in terms of 11 men. When you recognize that we lost 9 out of 11 starters from the 1954 team, you realize we have a large rebuilding job to do. With the entire starting line gone, we'll have some pretty inexperienced linemen. We are also undertaking the most difficult schedule we ever faced. Geographically, it is conceivable that we are meeting the top teams in their sections. Maryland is No. 1 in the East and maybe No. 1 in the Country; Texas A & M is top contender in the Southwest; Iowa certainly may be tops in the Big 10; and SC is the team to beat on the Coast. We must face these and six other top clubs with the same spirit and determination that have characterized out past teams."

Single Wing Master

HENRY R. "RED" SANDERS
UCLA HEAD FOOTBALL COACH

"Coach of the year for '54." That's the coveted honor voted the nation's outstanding single wing football coach. That's Henry Russell "Red" Sanders, UCLA's seventh head football coach.

After being a close runner-up in 1953, Sanders was voted the 1954 "Coach of the Year" by his fellow members of the American Football Coaches Association in the annual poll conducted by the New York World-Telegram & Sun. He was also tabbed for the same honor by the Touchdown Club of Washington, D. C. He became the first coach ever to be named "Football Coach of the Year" two years in a row (1953 and 1954) at the Los Angeles Times National Sports Award Dinner.

This past season was Sanders' 26th season as a football coach. Following 14 successful years of prep and assistant coaching jobs, Red now stands as a top mentor by outstanding performances for six years at Vanderbilt and six at UCLA. He gained further national recognition on the coaching staffs at the 1946 Blue-Gray Game at Montgomery, Ala.; the 1951 East-West Shrine Game at San Francisco; the 1952 College All-Star Game at Chicago; and the 1952 North-South Shrine Game at Miami, Fla.

Many honors have been accorded Sanders. He's the current president of the Pacific Coast Conference Football Coaches' Association. He's one of the few football coaches to be listed in "Who's Who." One of Red's most distinctive honors came when he was voted "Los Angeles' Outstanding Citizen of 1950" in a poll conducted by the Los Angeles Mirror. He received more votes than such prominent Angelenos as Chief of Police William Parker, Judge Mildred Lillie and Comedian Bob Hope.

He was given two particularly noteworthy honors just before the 1954 season got under way. He was named one of America's 30 all-time great coaches by a national survey conducted by Edwin Pope of Atlanta, Ga. Red was also commissioned as a Colonel on the personal staff of Gov. Frank Clement of Tennessee.

In six short seasons at UCLA, Red Sanders has made the Bruins one of the most respected pigskin powers in the country. The 1954 season, of course, was tops—his team went undefeated, won the Pacific Coast Conference championship for the second straight year, was voted America's No. 1 collegiate team by the men who know football best, the coaches, in the United Press poll and was also the recipient of the first Grantland Rice Memorial Trophy as the 1954 National Collegiate Champions voted by the Football Writers Association of America.

Sanders' coaching and personality have made a great "hit" with Bruin players, students, alumni and fans alike. Noted as a coach who has never failed to finish higher than he was rated by the experts, he has turned out soundly-drilled UCLA teams which have won 42 games, lost only 12 and tied one. He has finished first twice (1953, 1954), second three times (1949, 1951, 1952) and third once (1950) in the PCC.

When his Bruins won nine straight games this past season, he became the first UCLA coach in history ever to win two PCC football titles in a row and also the first mentor ever to boast a spotless undefeated and untied record in 36 years of football campaigning at UCLA.

Sanders lived and coached all his life in the South before coming to UCLA. Born in Asheville, N. C., on Mar. 7, 1905, he moved to Nashville, Tenn., when he was two. He attended Davidson County Central Hi in Nashville and later graduated from Riverside Military Academy, Gainesville, Ga., in 1923.

Entering Vanderbilt in 1923, Sanders lettered four years each in baseball, football and basketball. He was Vandy's baseball captain in 1927. He played quarterback at the same time All-American Bill Spears performed at Vandy. The late Dan McGugin, his coach, remarked that "Sanders has one of the best football brains I have ever known."

Incidentally, "Red" is a nickname tacked on him in childhood by an uncle and has nothing to do with the color of his hair, which is iron-grey.

Red's first coaching job was as backfield aide at Clemson in 1927. He also played pro baseball for three years following graduation from Vanderbilt. He then moved to Columbia, Tenn., Military Academy as head coach in 1931, then to his prep Alma Mater, Riverside, in '34. During his eight-year career at these two schools, he compiled one of the finest prep records in Southern history, winning 55 games, losing only four and tying two. In 1938 he was freshman coach at Florida and next backfield tutor at LSU. Vanderbilt paged him in 1940. There against top competition, Sanders six-year record (1941-42-43-46-47-48) was 36 wins, 22 defeats and two ties.

Sanders, who brought to the West Coast such outstanding grid tactics as the balanced-line single wing, has always coached the single wing. He also originated the now-famed 4-4 defense, copied by college and pro mentors alike all over the nation; developed the "squib kick" as substitution for the out-of-bounds punt; and exploited and popularized the now almost universally used spread punt formation.

The Sanders attack features plenty of passing and running power and also occasional short punt and spread formations. His is the only "pure" single wing team in the league.

Red served as a Navy Commander in World War II. He is married to the former Ann Daniel, of Lakeland, Fla., an alumnae of Florida State University and holder of a masters degree from the University of North Carolina.

WILLIAM F. "BILL" BARNES (Tennessee '41)
End Coach and Scout

The 1955 football season will be Bill Barnes' sixth year as end coach and scout at UCLA. Before coming to the Bruins in 1950 he spent four years at the University of Arkansas as end coach and scout.

Bill had a colorful football career as a player. He played prep football at Central Memphis (Tenn.) High and in 1935 was selected as a member of the All-Southern High School All-Star team. Bill then entered University of Tennessee where he starred as a wingback (halfback) in his sophomore season (1937), a blocking back as a junior (1938) and an end as a senior (1939). The 1938 Volunteer team, called the best Tennesse team in history, rolled over Oklahoma in the Orange Bowl. The 1939 team played and lost to Southern California in the Rose Bowl game.

He graduated from Tennessee in 1941 with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Education, majoring in geology and geography. He served as an assistant coach and scout at his Alma Mater in 1940.

Bill then entered the Army in February of 1942 as a second lieutenant with the 32nd Infantry Division. He served in the Pacific Theater 43 months. He was awarded the Legion of Merit, Silver Star and Bronze Star. He was discharged as a Major in 1946.

He then was signed as an assistant coach and scout at Arkansas. The 1946 Razorback team won the Southern Conference Championship and tied Louisiana State in the Cotton Bowl game of January 1, 1947. In 1947 Arkansas defeated William and Mary, Southern Conference champs, in the Dixie Bowl game.

Since coming to UCLA Barnes has done an outstanding job not only as a coach but also as one of the best collegiate scouts in the country.

Barnes is 37 years old, five-foot-ten and weighs 185 pounds. He's wed to the former Frances Tow, whom he met while coaching at Arkansas.

HERBERT B. "DEKE" BRACKETT (Tennessee '34)

Backfield Coach

When Tom Prothro resigned following the 1954 season to become head coach at Oregon State, Deke Brackett moved up to the job of chief backfield aide at UCLA. This will be the likeable Deke's sixth year on Sanders' staff. He and End Coach Bill Barnes were signed by Sanders at the same time (1950). Like Barnes, Deke was at Arkansas before coming west. At the Razorback school he was backfield coach and head baseball mentor from 1946 through 1949.

Brackett's coaching career dates back to 1934, the year he was graduated from the University of Tennessee where he was student body president in his senior year. He began that year as assistant football coach for the Volunteers.

He received honorable mention on Grantland Rice's All-American teams in 1931-32-33. Deke is 43 and is married to the former Hazel Bowman and has two children, Herbert, Jr., 14, and Sallye, 7.

After graduating from Knoxville, Tenn., High in 1929, he entered Tennessee and quarterbacked undefeated Vol teams in 1931-32.

In 1937 and 1938 he was assistant football coach and head baseball coach at The Citadel in Charleston, S. C. The following two years he held the same job at Hampden Sydney College, Va. The years 1942-45 found him in the Navy, from which he was discharged in 1945 as Lieutenant Commander.

GEORGE W. DICKERSON (UCLA '37)

Asst. Line Coach and Scout

This is George Dickerson's sixth year as Red Sanders' assistant line coach and scout at UCLA. He served as head Bruin Frosh coach for four years (1946-47-48-49) prior to his elevation to the varsity staff in 1950. When Coach Red Sanders came to UCLA in 1949, he retained George as his frosh coach because he believes the yearling mentor should be an alumnus of the school where he is coaching.

George rates as one of UCLA's all-time great tackles and starred for three years (1934-35-36) for Coach Bill Spaulding. He was the 1936 Bruin football captain. He also competed in boxing and rugby at UCLA.

At the age of nine, George moved to Los Angeles from Galion, Ohio, where he was born 42 years ago. Before entering UCLA, he prepped at Fairfax High in Los Angeles where he starred in football. After graduating in 1937, he coached a year at Arroyo Grande High in Northern California and four years at Tracy (Calif.) Union High. At the latter school, he coached the football, basketball and baseball teams.

He then joined the Navy and served ashore one year as an athletic officer and two and one-half years at sea as an armed guard officer. He was discharged in 1946 with the rank of lieutenant. He then came to UCLA as head frosh coach.

In addition to his coaching and scouting duties, George works closely with the Bruin football players in relation to their academic and personal problems. George is married to a former UCLA co-ed, Betty Axline, class of '36, and has one son, George, Jr., who is now 11 years old.

JAMES A. (JIM) MYERS—(Tennessee '47)

Line Coach

Now that Tommy Prothro is no longer a member of the UCLA coaching staff, Jim Myers becomes Sanders' oldest aide in point of service. Jim joined Sanders as an assistant coach at Vanderbilt in 1948 and came with him to UCLA the next year. And so Myers goes into his eighth year with Sanders, one at Vandy and seven at Westwood. Incidentally, before Backfield Coach Prothro resigned following the 1954 season to become headman at Oregon State, he had served nine years under Sanders, three at Vandy and six at UCLA.

Born in Madison, West Virginia, 33 years ago, Myers is rated one of the nation's leading line coaches. He's wed to the former Carolyn Agee, a pretty Tennessee co-ed at the same time Jim was starring in football for the Vols. They have three daughters, Susan 9; Katherine, 6; and Carol, 5.

At Madison, Jim played four years of prep ball. He enrolled at Tennessee and played frosh ball in 1940 and two years of varsity in 1941-42. In 1943 he joined the Marines and served until 1946. As a Marine trainee at Duke in '43 he played football and was named All-Southern Conference guard. He returned to Tennessee in '46 and completed his grid career, graduating in '47.

His coaching career got its start at Wofford College in Spartanburg, S. C., in 1947 when he coached the line. The following year he joined Coach Sanders as line coach at Vandy and came to UCLA with him in 1949.

RAYMOND R. (RAY) NAGEL—(UCLA '50)

Assistant Coach

Ray Nagel was Coach Sanders' popular choice to supplement the staff following the departure of Tommy Prothro to Oregon State as the Beaver head coach. Ray is one of the country's most experienced young coaches.

After starring for four years at UCLA (1946-49), three as a T-quarterback and one as a tailback on Sanders' first team at Westwood in 1949, Ray served on a part-time basis as the Bruin Frosh backfield coach in 1950 while attending the UCLA Law School. When offered the position as assistant varsity coach at UCLA in 1951, he gave up his law studies to follow coaching.

Following the 1952 season, Nagel was offered a fine contract by the Chicago Cardinals. He played part of the 1953 pro season and helped coach and scout for the Cards the remainder of the year. Then last year he was tabbed by Bud Wilkinson to serve as Oklahoma's backfield coach.

With Prothro's resignation following the 1954 season, Nagel accepted Sanders' offer to return to his alma mater and hometown. And so at the age of 28, Ray has three years of major collegiate coaching and one year of pro experience behind him. Nagel is rated one of UCLA's all-time great passers; in fact, he set a new Bruin record for number of pass completion in one year by hitting on 59 out of 117 for 969 yards in 1948. This record was since broken by Paul Cameron (66 in 1951).

Ray was born in Los Angeles and prepped at Los Angeles High where he starred for Coach Bert LaBrucherie as a T-quarterback. He won All-City honors in 1944. He followed LaBrucherie to UCLA when the latter became headman in 1945. Ray is married to the former Shirley Ann Tanner and they have three children—Nancy, 5; Bruce, 3; and Ray, Jr., born last May.

Freshman Coach

Johnny goes into his sixth season as head Bruin frosh coach. Back in 1949 he served as frosh backfield mentor and then the following year succeeded George Dickerson as yearling headman when Dickerson moved up to the varsity staff. He's 34 years old, five-foot-nine, 185 and still an eligible bachelor.

He lettered three years as a quarterback, 1936-37-38, at Bakersfield High where he gained All-San Joaquin Valley recognition. He captained the 1939 UCLA frosh eleven and, after missing a year of varsity competition, returned as a Bruin fullback in 1941.

From 1942-46 he was in the service. He was discharged as a lieutenant in the Naval Air Corps. He returned to UCLA in 1946 and played on the PCC championship team as a fullback.

TEXAS A & M (Game at Los Angeles Coliseum, Friday night, Sept. 16, 8:30 p.m.)

Location: College Station, Tex.
Conference: Southwest
Enrollment: 6,500
Colors: Maroon and White
Nickname: Aggies or Cadets

UCLA all-time record against Texas A & M: W-0, L-2, T-0

Widest margin of victory for Texas A & M: 7 points (7-0 in 1940 and 21-14 in 1951)

Boasting a record of four wins in four starts against Pacific Coast Conference teams, Coach Bryant brings his second Aggie team to Los Angeles loaded with young, talented performers to fit his strong Split-T attack.

Bryant and Sanders have met twice, when the former was at Kentucky and Red at Vanderbilt in 1947 and 1948. Bryant won the first encounter, 14-0, and the UCLA headman the second, 26-7.

Bolstered by an admittedly greatly improved running game, the basis of the Aggie attack, the visitors' Split-T offense could be a rugged affair with six-foot, 188-pound Bobby Joe Conrad working at quarter; Johnny Crow, 200, and Ed Dudley, 190, at half-backs; and Ken Hall, 202, at full. All are sophomores.

Heft in the line is centered from tackle to tackle with maneuverability the keynote at ends. Standouts seem to be tackles Jack Powell, 220, and Henry Clark, 225. Back from the Army is Junior Leo Marquette, a 230-pounder who overmatches anything UCLA has to offer.

Although Sanders' Bruins have not lost an opening game since the Aggies defeated UCLA, 21-14, in 1951, advance notices prepare the Bruins for another rugged initial contest against the outfit generally considered a threat to all members of the Southwest Conference.

Widest margin of victory for UCLA: 5 points (12-7 in 1954)

The 1955 University of Maryland football team will be another typical Terrapin team—a great one. The 1954 Jim Tatum team was every bit as strong as anticipated; and only a rugged National Championship team from UCLA prevented their climbing higher than 10th in the national rankings, but the Terps came along fast after mid-season as the all-important quarterback and tackle positions molded into the usual fine category that have always characterized the Maryland attack.

The early prediction is that Maryland will possess one of the fastest, if not the fastest, lines since Tatum took over at College Park in 1947. The backfield also has fine speed and finesse led by a great all-round Split-T quarterback in Frank Tamburello.

The boy on whom Maryland counts most is Center Bob Pellegrini, an All-America candidate who performed at left guard last fall. He is considered one of the finest players ever coached by Tatum.

Along with co-captain Pellegrini up front are six veteran ends with Bill Walker, second team All America of 1954, and Russell Dennis returning at the top flank positions. The tackle situation has greatly improved since last fall with Ed Heurling, 215, and Mike Sandusky, 240, as two of the best tackle prospects since the days of Modzelewski, Morgan, Jones and Krause. They are backed up by two other lettermen.

Guards seem well fixed with Jack Davis, an outstanding prospect, working in with Gene Dyson.

At the halfback spots, Tatum again has his typical lean, wiry performers like Ed Vereb, Dick Burgee, Howard Dare, Dave Nusz and some fine sophomores. All run around 175 to 185 pounds and possess unusual speed.

Following in the heels of rugged Dick Bielski at fullback will be three 200-pounders in Tom Selep, Jim Skarda and Bill Komlo.

In other words, watch out for the big Maryland machine! However this particular contest between Maryland and UCLA turns out, if it is half the hard-knocking game the 1954 show was, it will be simply the No. 1 game of the season.

Widest margin of victory for UCLA: 42 points (42-0 in 1950)

Widest margin of victory for WSC: 38 points (38-0 in 1928)

Sporting a free-wheeling multiple offense of T-formation and single wing with 26 lettermen returning to make it go, Al Kircher's WSC outfit appears to be the strongest in 10 years.

With a completely veteran line averaging over 200 pounds, the Cougars may have the top front wall on the West Coast. And despite loss of big Duke Washington at fullback, Kircher can mount a strong attack with quarterback Bob Iverson as the mainspring.

Iverson completed 45 out of 98 passes for 496 yards and three touchdowns and also rushed for 127 and six more scores. He was also the PCC's top pass intercepter with five to his credit.

The passing attack looms particularly threatening with return of wingmen Pete Toomey and Arnie Pelleur on the right side and Russ Quackenbush on the left. Between them, they snagged 44 passes for a total of 613 yards and four touchdowns.

The remainder of the line almost reads like something out of the WSC "Who's Who." It'll be Captain Jerry Brockey, 210, at right tackle and Tom Gunnari, 215, at the other. Both look like All-Coasters, at least. Guards are vets Jim Welch, 200 and Vaughan Hitchcock, 195, the latter the best Cougar lineman at the end of the 1954 season. Finally, nothing but veterans make up the roster at center—Skip Pixley, 210; Bruce Nevitt, 215, both seniors; and Junior Ev Gust, 190.

Needing only one new breakway back to go with halfbacks Jim Hagerty and Dennis Rath, watch out for WSC in '55!

Widest margin of victory for OSC: 28 points (28-0 in 1948)

A "new look" comes to Oregon State with installation of the Red Sanders-type balanced-line single wing attack by Tom Prothro, one of the nation's fine young head coaches and former backfiield aide to the UCLA mentor.

With new enthusiasm generated by Prothro at OSC, the Beavers showed up well in spring drills with former T-quarterback Ray Westfall, a 6-foot, 195-pounder operating at the all-important tailback spot. The big junior showed plenty of passing ability, though injured much of 1954, completing 30 out of 64 passes for 309 yards and one touchdown. He has plenty of promise, however, as a runner although he did little last fall.

Although Center Bob Frommelt, 185, ex-quarterback and center Bob Clark, Halfback Arlo Wenstrand and Fullback Chuck Marsh are the only returning starters from last year's UCLA-OSC game, Prothro received some unexpected aid from 6-2, 240-pound letterman John Witte, a tackle letterman in 1952. Witte, who could be one of the Coast's top tackles. received valuable experience for two years at Ft. Ord and Ft. Richardson.

Prospects now point to a large-sized front wall and a light, free-wheeling backfield that could send Oregon State back up the PCC ladder.

With no less than nine regulars returning from the 1954 UCLA-Stanford contest, the Indians will undoubtedly be looking forward to this Oct. 15 date with a vengeance. These nine and 16 others will be seeking to erase the stigma of the 72-0 whitewashing at the hands of the 1954 national champions from UCLA.

Possible starting lineup will be the quartet of Quarterback John Brodie, Halfbacks Gordy Young and Ernie Dorn and Fullback Bill Tarr. Brodie was an outstanding thrower in 1954 with 81 out of 163 completions for

1955 UCLA Opponents

937 yards. He completed 19 out of 35 against the Bruins for 173 yards, but had five intercepted.

The other backs, Tarr, Dorn and Young, ran 1-2-3 in Stanford rushing, garnering 729, 275 and 201 net yards respectively for the 1954 season. Left end John Stewart, the 6-foot-3 star was the ace receiver with 36 catches for 577 yards and two touchdowns.

Picked by the UCLA coach as the team most likely to go to the Rose Bowl, the Indians can start five line regulars that include Stewart, Left Tackle Bob Marshall, 203; Left Guard Tony Mosich, 208; Right Tackle Paul Wiggin, 213; and Right End Steve Docter, 208. Lettermen Bob Long and Fritz Furlanic will probably step up to center and right guard respectively.

Losers of six out of their last seven games last fall, look for the tide to swing the other way rapidly in '55, bolstered by some of the finest sophomore gridders in Indian history.

Widest margin of victory for UCLA: 24 points (27-3 in 1938)

A strong-arm football team with about equal emphasis on effense and defense is the rugged prospect for UCLA's Bruins when Iowa invades the Los Angeles Coliseum for the first time since Dr. Eddie Anderson tried it before 90,910 fans in 1947. The Hawkeyes lost, 22-7, that year; but present Coach Forest Evashevski doesn't intend for his Big 10 team to continue their three-game losing streak to the Bruins.

Captain Calvin Jones, virtually a unanimous All-American last fall at guard, is one of the great performers of Iowa history. Along with him forming one of the nation's toughest front walls will be Tackles Roger Swedberg and George Kress; senior Ends Jim Freeman and Frank Gilliam; and Center Don Suchy, a seasoned group, which will probably be strengthened by addition of promising sophomores Frank Bloomquist and Dick Theer.

Sparking the unusual Evashevski multiple offense, which has no equal in the country, is Senior Quarterback Jerry Reichow, who completed 46 per cent of his passes during 1954 and averaged 3.3 yards on option plays.

Groundwise the leader will probably be right half Eddie Vincent, who was the Big 10's leading rusher with a 6.9 average in seven league games. His season's total was 620 yards. At the other half is Earl Smith, the speedburner who galloped for 76 and 66 yards for touchdowns against Ohio State's Bowl team. He was the league's top scorer in conference games. Top full prospect is power-hitting Roger Wiegmann, a reserve for two seasons.

An attack which produced an average of 4.7 yards per play last season as against UCLA's 5.6, the Bruin-Hawkeye battle looms as one of the top clashes of 1955. Key to the contest may be whether UCLA's offense-minded team can crack what appears to be one of the toughest of all Iowa defensive units.

Widest margin of victory for Cal: 35 points (35-0 in 1950)

With the prospect of a first string loaded with six former Southern California prep stars, California looks forward to a turn in the tide which has given UCLA four straight victories over their Bay Area cousins.

Starters who performed against UCLA at Berkeley last season are End Jim Carmichael, Tackle Bob Oliver, Guard Don Gilkey, all over 210 pounds, and left half Johnny Wilson, 172.

Taking over at T-quarterback in place of graduated Paul Larson will be Mike Casey, the all-around star from Brawley, Calif. He'll have, in addition to 185-pound Ed Brandt at one end, one of the nation's outstanding pass targets in big Jim Carmichael, a 210-pounder from Inglewood, Calif., who ranked third in the nation in 1954 with 33 receptions for 420 yards and two touchdowns.

The line, tackle to tackle, is where the Bears may hurt the Bruins. It includes tackles Bob Oliver, 230, and

1955 UCLA Opponents

Harry Ghilarducci, 250; guards Don Gilkey, 235, and Jose Oliva, 210; and Center Don Mitchell, 200. Few lines in the country can counteract this size.

Along with Casey and Wilson in the backfield will be two other gridiron hotrods in Steve Dimeff, a 195-pound halfback, and Jerry Drew, from Los Angeles, a 200-pound fireball.

As usual, you can look for this traditional intra-university rivalry to furnish one of the year's outstanding athletic contests.

UCLA all-time record against COP: W-2, L-1, T-0

Widest margin of victory for UCLA: 50 points (50-0 in 1945)

Widest margin of victory for COP: 16 points (19-7 in 1943)

A mobile, experienced, fairly deep line, improved backs in both size and speed and three good T-quarterbacks pushing a two-year letterman senior are listed on the credit side of COP's football picture.

A two-year rebuilding job seems to have paid off for the Tiger forward wall. From tackle to tackle, Coach Jim Myers and line mentor Johnny Nikcevich have by far the best prospects since 1951. Tackle John Nisby, 213—a great one—and Gene Cronin, 208, anchor an experienced line which was tough even a year ago. About the only rookies with a chance to break into the first two strings are sophomore Center Roy Banducci, a 220-pounder out of the Armed Forces; soph Left Tackle Bill Striegel, 215; and soph Right End Johnny Thomas, COP's basketball ace who had an impressive spring practice.

If those three rookies continue to show the stuff they put forth in the spring, COP's line could easily be the best in the school's history.

Incredible as it seems, Yuba JC's Del Whittier could be just the boy to move two-year veteran Bill Jacobs out of his quarterback spot. Though Jake was hampered last fall by a broken thumb on his passing hand, he still managed to complete 46 out of 89 attempts for 516 yards and three touchdowns. He is also considered the best defensive back in Tiger history. But Whittier, an All-America JC performer last fall, is a rifle-armed passer who connected for no less than 21 touchdowns in 1954.

Last year's top backs, Ken Swearingen, Ted Case, Ernie Lindo, Don Cornell and Dewey Tompkins all return but none may be able to crack the starting lineup. Speedy J. B. Girard was shifted from quarter to left half and plucked off a first string spot in spring practice, followed by Modesto JC's Gene Peterson and Cornell.

Ferrell Funston, a 200-pound right-half from Sacramento JC, rates the top prospect to enter Pacific in a decade and Swearingen and Tompkins will find it hard to keep him down. At fullback, Don Bossert, from Santa Rosa JC, was running even with Case last spring and Lindo, last year's top ground gainer (possessor of a 7.1-yard average) no better than fourth string.

Cautious optimism is the feeling at COP. This is the team the Tigers have been working toward for several years and it could be the best in COP history.

UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON (Game at Los Angeles Coliseum, Saturday, Nov. 12, 2 p.m.)

Widest margin of victory for Washington: 41 points (41-0 in 1940)

With Sandy Ledermen, one of the nation's leading aerialists, back in action after a broken leg sidelined him in the third game of the 1954 season, Washington should come along well this year.

Admittedly a green team a season ago, but one that showed promise, especially in a rangy and weighty line, the Huskies may be something to contend with in '55. In addition, the backfield boasts more over-all speed than it has had since 1951.

If he can shake off the injury jinx, 204-pound Mike Monroe could become one of the West's greatest fullbacks and furnish a rivalry with UCLA's All-American Bob Davenport and Doug Peters. Veterans Bob Dunn, Dean Derby, Bob McNamee, Ron Terry and Mickey McKinnon round out the cast.

Back at left end is nifty Corky Lewis, who snagged 21 passes for 250 yards and two touchdowns last fall, and will team with Jim Houston, who was close behind with 14 for 217 and one TD. Bud Green, who snagged 8 for 118 and one TD backs them up.

Greater line strength comes from the improvement in vets Ed Sheron, Don McCumby, Earl Monlux and Frank Nelson, plus the return to action of Fred Robinson, George Strugar, Bert Watson and Jerry Esser, the latter a 1953 letterman who was out of school last fall. Most notable among the newcomers is 245-pound Dick Day, a tackle.

Watch for the Huskies to come up fast this fall and be particularly tough toward the end of the season.

Widest margin of victory for UCLA: 39 points (39-0 in 1950)

Widest margin of victory for USC: 76 points (76-0 in 1929)

Fronted by one of the nation's finest lines, the 1955 USC football team could make up considerably for the four losses they suffered last season.

Outstanding ends like Leon Clarke (6-4, 213) and Chuck Griffith (6-6, 239) may give Coach Jess Hill two of the nation's best backed up by lettermen Don McFarland and Bing Bordier.

Tackles George Belotti, 231, and Dick Westphal, 201, will be at least the equal of last year's performers while the guards and centers loom more experienced and stronger. Probably nowhere on the Coast does a team have the equal of guards George Galli, 199, and Orlando Ferrante, 198, and a slick center in 185-pound Marvin Goux. Goux is one of SC's top candidates for 1955 All-America honors.

Another red-hot prospect for national honors is tailback Jon Arnett, one of America's most dangerous ball-carriers. He carried the ball 87 times for 478 yards and a 5.5-yard average last season, scoring 55 points to wind up third in the Pacific Coast Conference. He's fiery, driving runner with great speed and can go "all the way" from any part of the field.

The quarterback spot looms as a great battle between veterans Frank Hall and Ellsworth Kissinger, who could be more effective than the graduated Jim Contratto. Lettermen Ron Brown and Ernie Merk, are strong performers at wingback but could be shoved back a notch by a great prospect in sophomore Don Hickman, a 170-pounder from Monterey Park.

At fullback the Trojans don't worry about a thing with three seasoned lettermen in Gordon Duvall, Wayne Kurlak and Bob Isaacson, who were rated 1-2-3 last fall.

Coach Jess Hill, far from crying the blues, confidently expects to field one of the West's top teams despite the fact that USC is ineligible to compete in the Rose Bowl. He contends the PCC race narrows down to a battle between the Trojans and UCLA. If it does, that season's finale for the Bruins looms as another tremender of this long and great rivalry.

Note: A "rule of thumb" in placing of certain men on defense is as follows—tackles are always reversed on defense; centers and quarterbacks (blocking backs) are always linebackers on defense; fullbacks and right halfbacks are always defensive halfbacks and left halfbacks (tailbacks) are always safety men on defense.

History of UCLA

MOST American universities date back many ivy-covered years and some, like William and Mary or Harvard, trace their antecedents to Revolutionary times. But the University of California at Los Angeles (UCLA for short), is only 35 years old. Its 400-acre campus, set against the Santa Monica Mountains with the blue Pacific in the background, is even newer.

What in 1928 was a lonely bean field dotted with live oaks and sycamores, the home of lizards and jackrabbits, is now a busy center of study and research, extra-curricular student activities and bustling construction.

Despite the high entrance requirements, its enrollment has mushroomed to nearly 14,000 students—making it one of the top 10 in the nation in size of enrollment.

UCLA is the second largest campus in point of enrollment among the eight campuses of the state university, which is headed by President Robert Gordon Sproul.

Raymond B. Allen, former president of the University of Washington and more recently Director of the Psychological Strategy Board in Washington, D. C., is Chancellor at UCLA. He heads a faculty of 1500 and a staff of 2,500. He directs the activities of 61 departments in 12 schools and colleges and supervises a $18,000,000 annual budget.

In contrast to older American universities which have been building for a century or more, UCLA erected its physical plant during a single generation. Its $60,000,000 post-war buildings are constructed of the same materials and share the same architectural feeling as the older buildings. They are, however, simpler in design, in line with increased construction costs.

While physical expansion is the most astonishing single fact about the Los Angeles campus, it has grown rapidly and vigorously in instruction and research—helping the state-wide University of California to maintain its place as one of the "Big Five" in American education, along with Harvard, Yale, Columbia and Chicago.

In the field of science, UCLA is one of the leading centers in the world for the study of acoustical physics and physical organic chemistry. It is one of four universities in the United States that train meteorologists for the Army, Navy and Air Force. Its College of Engineering carries on significant studies in aeronautics, ceramics, heat transfer, traffic and transportation and other fields. The UCLA campus has the only cyclotron in southern California. The Atomic Energy Commission has established a $2,000,000 Atomic Energy Project on the campus to study atomic medicine. UCLA's department of astronomy offers the only rocket navigation course in the world. Its College of Agriculture draws students from all over the globe to study subtropical horticulture and floriculture.

UCLA's Medical Center, completed this year at a cost of $22,000,000, is expected to set the pattern for the Atomic Age. Containing more than 16 acres of floor space, the Schools of Medicine and Nursing, Student Health Service, and laboratory facilities for research in cancer, heart disease, mental illness, and other scourges.

In the humanities, UCLA has a distinguished record also. Its School of Business Administration, established in 1954, now attracts 1,500 students and is one of the finest in the country. Its Law School boasts the largest enrollment on the Pacific Coast. UCLA's Library ranks eighth in size on a national scale. The department of theater arts combining drama, television, and motion pictures, is one of the most outstanding in the United States. The graduate department of journalism offers the only such training west of Columbia.

WILBUR JOHNS (UCLA '25)
Director of Athletics

This is Wilbur Johns' ninth year as UCLA's Director of Athletics. He succeeded the beloved Bill Spalding as the guiding light of Bruin athletics in 1947 and has been doing a fine job ever since of directing the ever-growing sports program of 19 organized varsity teams at UCLA, including baseball, basketball, crew, cricket, cross country, football, golf, gymnastics, rifle, rugby, sailing, skiing, soccer, swimming, tennis, track & field, volleyball, water polo and wrestling.

The high esteem in which Johns is held was indicated by his selection as the 1955 recipient of the coveted Regent Edward A. Dickson Achievement Award, popularly known as the UCLA Alumnus of the Year Award. Johns is the tenth winner of this award. The others, in chronological order, were: M. Philip Davis, William C. Ackerman, Frederick F. Houser, Ralph J. Bunche, Victor R. Hansen, Bruce Russell, Dr. Glenn T. Seaborg, Agnes de Mille and Edward W. Carter.

Ever since Johns came to UCLA in 1921 he has been closely associated with his alma mater as student, athlete, coach and now athletic director. He was a three-sport letterman at Glendale High in basketball, tennis and baseball but a broken arm in two successive grid seasons forced him to forego football. At UCLA he lettered four years in basketball and also won his "C" in swimming and tennis. He captained the 1925 Bruin cage varsity.

Following graduation he was named assistant hoop mentor under Caddy Works. He served as varsity aide and frosh coach until 1939 when he was named head cagemaster. Johns-coached quintets gained in prominence until 1945 when the Bruins won the Southern Division title, and repeated in '47.

In 1948 Johns gave up his coaching duties in order to devote full time to the over-all UCLA athletic program and picked Wooden to succeed as cage coach. Wilbur is now well-known and respected in NCAA athletic circles and is currently chairman of the NCAA Extra-Events Committee, a member of the NCAA Public Relations Committee and a member of the NCAA Executive Committee. He is also treasurer of the PCC and secretary of the PCC Athletic Directors' Group.

Wilbur is married to the former Idelle Robelen and has an attractive daughter, Peggy, 23, now Mrs. William Cheney, and Mike, 6-year-old son.
